PROJECT NIGHT GETTING READY

AZ TAX CREDIT ANN DAVIS

Do you ever wish you could avoid paying taxes and at the same time help Kino? Sounds like a no brainer, doesn't it? Well, amazingly, that's exactly what the Arizona tax credit for donations for private school scholarships allows you to do.

If you ordinarily would have paid (for example) $500 in Arizona income tax in 2007, you can donate $500 to Kino instead and pay ZERO to the Arizona Department of Revenue. If you are married filing jointly, you can reduce your taxes by any amount up to $1,000.

Scholarships benefit all of us because they are a vitally important way to keep our community strong.

We ask everyone to at least become aware of how the tax credit works and take a look at what they pay in Arizona income taxes.

Last week we mailed out a letter explaining the tax credit in greater detail. Please read it and tell your friends and family about it. If you have any questions, you can call Ann Davis at school (297-7278) or at home (327-7528).

ZONA 78

Thanks to everyone who joined the Kino Community for dinner at Zona 78 last night.

We hope you had a fun evening and a delicious dinner. We also thank you for supporting Kino School's fundraising efforts.

Difficulty level: Hard
But all the words are there. I checked.

Happy Thanksgiving!

IT'S A KINO THING

Brie Flaherty with Matt Orozco to Judy: "Can we do some pottery?"

Matt Orozco: "Nah, let's go do some math!"

"I really love how many nooks and crannies there are to read and write in - especially the library loft."

Mia

Eli to Ann: "I'm sorry I'm late! I got so interested in the book I'm writing I forgot about the time!"

Ann to Eli: "That's fine—It would be really silly to make you stop writing to come to writing class."

STOP THE PRESSES!

No Kino Connection next week due to the Thanksgiving holiday. School is out on Wednesday, November 21, Thursday, November 22, and Friday, November 23. Have a wonderful holiday!
